

Rhonda Fraser is an influential global women's leader. She is an author, writer, empowerment specialist, inspirational speaker and businesswoman. Every year she is the keynote speaker at various dynamic women empowerment conferences. She functions in various leadership roles, including serving as the Women of Purpose Representative for the Brooklyn / Staten Island Section. She is a personal development and leadership coach who enjoys developing leaders and helping women to optimize their God-given assignments.

Rhonda enjoys writing and is an outstanding author. She is a contributing author for the books: 1) This is How I Fight My Battles 2) Women of War: Peace in the Midst of Storm. She also wrote several empowerment pieces for her women conferences, ministry women magazines (including The Encourager) and other online motivational pieces. Her empowerment devotional for women will be released early 2021.

Rhonda is an accomplished Corporate Finance, Marketing and Strategy Executive, with a Master's Degree (MBA), specialization in Strategic Management, Finance and Marketing from Villanova University. She has over 20 years of experience in Corporate America and is now the owner of R. Fraser Consulting Services.

She has been married to her husband, Rev. Reginald Fraser for 32 years. They have three children and together they (The R.Frasers ) give back their talents in teaching music, worship, business and growth strategies to churches, organizations and individuals.

Rhonda's goal is to live a successful - balanced life – spiritually, physically, mentally, emotionally, professionally and empower others (especially women) to do the same.
