

Sioni is active in the fight against human trafficking and all other human rights violations. She is a committed advocate for women who have been sexually assaulted or a victim of domestic abuse. Sioni dedicates her time to helping the Project Rescue Ministry (Stand against Human Trafficking )and in addition, is a team member of A Time Beyond Survival International Ministry.

Sioni has been a guest speaker, raising awareness about human trafficking and human rights violations at churches, High Schools and conferences both in the US and abroad

In addition, she is a very active coordinator in the Angel Tree program, a program that reaches out with the love of Christ to the children and families of the incarcerated.

She became a Chaplain through UNIPAS in 2012 and along with her husband is a leader in the Pleasant Valley Assembly of God prison ministry. Both Sioni and her husband Richard serve at the Northampton Correctional Facility. Sioni loves leading women at her local church.

Sioni holds an Associate's Degree in Biblical Academic Studies, a Bachelor's Degree in Religious Christian Counseling as well as a certificate, from AACC, in Mental health Coaching and Behavioral Health Disorders .

Additionally Sioni is a published author.

THREE TIMES SOLD, is a story of survival, faith and forgiveness.

REBUILDING WHAT WAS DESTROYED is the story of how a mother's bold faith changed everything.