

SIONI RODRIGUEZ

Sioni Rodriguez is a published author of Three Times Sold, a story of survival and forgiveness. She was sold into sex trafficking at a very young age; hers is a heroism story. The book Rebuilding What Was Destroyed is the story of how a mother's bold faith changed everything. Sioni is dedicated to helping Project Rescue Ministry and is active in the fight against human trafficking and all other human rights violations. In addition, she is a team member of A Time Beyond Survival International Ministry.

Sioni became a chaplain through UNIPAS in 2012. She is active as the leader of women's ministries at her church and of prison ministry at Pleasant Valley Assembly of God. She is an active coordinator in the Angel Tree program, which reaches out with the love of Christ to the children and families of the incarcerated.

Sioni holds an Associate's degree in Biblical Academic Studies, a Bachelor's degree in Religious Christian Counseling, and a certificate from AACC in mental health coaching and behavioral health disorders.

Sioni is passionate about Christ and ministering as a guest speaker at churches, high schools, and conferences in the U.S. and abroad.
